

The Blessed Stanley Rother Story

Blessed Stanley Rother

Daniel Mueggenborg had closed off the possibility of becoming a priest, until he was asked to be an altar server at a Mass for his aunt and uncle's wedding anniversary. "The priest who celebrated the Mass was Father Stanley Rother. I knew nothing of him, not even his name, prior to that Mass, and yet was captivated by the deep spiritual presence that surrounded him," Mueggenborg said. Rother had a spiritual presence that was undeniable and almost tangible. He was a quiet person, but he emanated a profound sense of love, peace and joy. These were qualities that Daniel wanted but was not finding. He recognized that Rother had these qualities through being a priest.

"The witness of his radical commitment to Jesus Christ and his love for the people left a life-long impression on me. I will be forever grateful to him for that impact. To honor the influence he had on my journey to priesthood, I used his chalice to celebrate my first Mass as a priest on July 16, 1989," Bishop Mueggenborg said.

Now Blessed Stanley Rother's Story has come to local theaters

Worthy Brother Knights,

I strongly encourage each of you, your families, and your fellow parishioners to experience and actively support the inspiring story of faith, sacrifice, and courage in American Martyr: The Blessed Stanley Rother Story. This powerful documentary tells the story of Blessed Stanley Rother, the first U.S.-born priest recognized as a martyr, whose unwavering love for the people of Guatemala led him to give his life in service to Christ.

In theaters:

- August 25–26 (English)
- August 27 (Español)

I urge you to purchase your tickets as soon as possible and consider taking the next step by organizing a parish or council group viewing. This is a meaningful opportunity to come together in faith and witness a powerful example of Christian courage. Encourage others in your parish to join you, and help ensure strong attendance in your local theaters. Learn more about group opportunities and secure arrangements at <https://tinyurl.com/rothergroupsales>.

May Blessed Stanley Rother continue to inspire each of us to live our Catholic faith with courage, charity, and conviction.

Vivat Jesus!

David M Clarke
Nevada State Deputy

Tickets available at <https://tinyurl.com/rothergroupsales>